
TRAVEL INSURANCE

Accidents happen, no matter where you travel in the world.

Getting ill or injured abroad can be more complicated and expensive than when you're in Romania.

Taking out travel insurance can give you peace of mind should the unexpected happen. The main benefit is emergency medical cover, which can be very expensive.

What does Travel Insurance cover?

Where you go, and what you do on your trip, makes a difference to the cover you need.

The covered risks include:

- expenses related to medical repatriation
- expenses related to repatriation in case of death
- emergency transport (provided by a specialized crew) to the nearest medical unit
- outpatient treatment
- diagnostic procedures, medical supplies and medications
- treatment performed under specialized hospital conditions
- emergency surgery
- transfer to a specialist clinic, if recommended by a doctor
- emergency phone calls

The policy is highly customizable and may be extended by including:

- flight delay, baggage delay, baggage loss, loss of documents, loss or theft of a mobile phone and civil liability to third parties.
- risks related to leisure sports: skiing, water skiing, snowboarding, skating, surfing, horse riding, carting, mountain biking, rafting, mountaineering, etc.

Why do you need a Travel Insurance?

Travel Insurance may be able to protect you against a range of unforeseen circumstances that can negatively impact your holiday.

The travel insurance has validity in most countries of the world covering the cost of emergency medical services. The travel insurance also includes risks that cannot be covered by the European Health Insurance Card.
